

Invitation - 2010 Cargo Security Conference USA

Dear customers, partners and industry experts

Lufthansa Cargo is proud to invite you to its second USA security conference "Industry Preparedness and the Congressional Mandate". Just as last year the event will take place in New York. Please mark your calendars and confirm your attendance by Nov 20, 2009.

Tuesday, February 2nd, 2010, 12:30 PM to 06:00 PM
Lufthansa Cargo AG, 1640 Hempstead Turnpike, East Meadow, New York

We are planning an informative day of presentations and discussions as well as an opportunity to network with industry experts and government representatives. Those who have confirmed their attendance are:

- Edward Kelly, General Manager, Air Cargo, U.S. Transportation Security Administration
- Brandon Fried, Executive Director, The Air Freight Forwarders Association
- Adam Salerno, Senior Manager National Security and Emergency Preparedness, The United States Chamber of Commerce
- Jim Viscardi, Director, Critical Infrastructure, Federal Accounts, Smiths Detection
- Gerry Berry, President, Covenant Aviation Security
- Carter Morris, Senior Vice President, Transportation Security Policy, The American Association of Airport Executives

Additional industry experts and other security specialists are invited. Table displays will be offered by Lufthansa Cargo/Covenant Aviation Security Teaming Partnership, Regiscope, Smiths Detection, BCI Technologies, and Global Systems Technologies.

As a worldwide leader in cargo security, Lufthansa Cargo considers industry outreach and collaboration amongst experts to be an integral part of an effective security plan. Our goal is to foster communication and exchange insights to ensure that the supply chain and the airline industry remain safe and secure.

We hope to see you at our event, and look forward to reaffirming Lufthansa Cargo's commitment to the field of security. Should you personally be unable to attend we encourage you to nominate a delegate to represent your organization.
